Group 2: Outdoor Recreation

Group 4: Professional Assistance

4. Under the L&H track, Actuarial Interns with six (6) or less completed courses will be eligible for exam program and/or performance increases, with an annual maximum

2. Employees in the following titles may be assigned to serve as residents:

Assistant Engineer, Electrical (16692)
Assistant Engineer, Planning (12692)
Assistant Engineer, Traffic (11282)
Assistant Engineer, Transportation (10272)
Construction and Maintenance Technician 1 (10133)
Construction and Maintenance Technician 2 (10131)
Engineering Technician 1 (59954/10122)
Principal Engineer, Electrical (15008/16694)
Principal Engineer, Mechanical (16894)
Principal Engineer, Planning (12694)
Principal Engineer, Traffic (11284)
Principal Engineer, Transportation (10274)
Environmental Engineer 3 (16304/16314)
Environmental Specialist 3 (12524/15854)
Project Engineer, Construction (10895)
Project Engineer, Electrical (10256)
Project Engineer, Maintenance (11684)
Project Engineer, Planning (12695)
Project Engineer, Traffic (11296)
Senior Engineer, Electrical (16693)

4. Duration of payments will be as follows:

    a. In the Division of Construction and Materials:

        The functional rate will go into effect on the date that a Preconstruction Meeting for the project takes place, in accordance with Construction Operations Bulletin 66-3G. The rate will cease

d. Employees who have received a lump sum payment or performance increase in the preceding 12 months will be moved step-to-step in the new non-managerial salary range. If the employee is not o7 step, and has ex tra salary, the amount of extra salary being carried will be divided by the value of an increment in the employee's current managerial Employee Relations Group range t0.00ent

H. MOVEMENT OF EMPLOYEES, WITHOUT PROMOTIONAL PROCEDURES, TO A RESTRUCTURED TITLE SERIES

I. ANNIVERSARY DATES