JOINING OHSP	If you are looking for an exciting and rewarding career in public service, then come join our team of dedicated professionals. We strive to cultivate a workplace environment that rewards innovation and creativity, and which encourages employees to be forward-thinking, collaborative, and above all, united in our common mission to keep New Jersey safe and secure.
OPPORTUNITY	The New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness (NJOHSP) is seeking to fill Temporary Employee Service part-time/hourly TES/944 position for the Counterterrorism Watch (CT Watch) Unit within the Intelligence Management Bureau, located at the Office of the Regional Operations Intelligence Center (ROIC) in West Trenton, NJ. This position is in the unclassified service and applicants must meet the minimum job requirements specified below.
JOB DESCRIPTION	The Intelligence Management Bureau provides tailored information and intelligence to New Jersey's law enforcement, public and private-sector partners through regular engagement with the intelligence community and information sharing that meets State and national intelligence priorities. Additionally, the bureau manages Statewide suspicious activity reports (SARs) while collaborating with the New Jersey Regional Operations and Intelligence Center and other law enforcement agencies to gather, process, and share SARs in an accurate and timely manner. As an Counterterrorism Watch Specialist the responsibilities will include: collecting counterterrorism information of a sensitive nature in the form of Suspicious Activity Reports (SARs) from various sources, including public, private sector, and law enforcement entities; querying investigative information and databases from a variety of systems, as well as open source reporting and develop reports on activities, investigations, and findings; monitoring open source media reports and sensitive documents to determine potential threats to the United States and New Jersey and provide situational awareness updates to the NJOHSP Intelligence & Operations Division as well as conducting background investigations on individuals. The ideal candidate will have a background in intelligence, homeland security, or criminal justice as this job requires a basic understanding of the current threat environment. This position will require strong research and writing skills, keen computer skills, and the ability to simultaneously manage multiple projects in collaboration with various members of NJOHSP and ability to work with people of all backgrounds. The successful candidate will be a team member with the ability to adapt easily to meet priorities and deadlines in a fast-paced changing environment. The selected candidate will be required to provide availability for four (4) days per pay period (biweekly) of which one (1) day must be on the weekends. Shifts are 6:30 am - 3 pm; 2:30 pm -11:00 pm; 8pm – 4:30am and 10:30 pm – 7am. You must have a flexible schedule which will allow for working varying shifts to meet operational needs. This position requires working a minimum of five

	(5) shifts per month. This position requires working a minimum of 456 hours to a maximum of 944 hours per fiscal year (July 1 – June 30). Please Note: TES/944 employees are not eligible for telework. This position is designated as Business and Weather Essential. This designation requires reporting to work at the regular starting time during inclement weather when State offices are closed or to reporting to work to maintain operations necessary for public health, safety or welfare during a business interruption.
REQUIREMENTS	Education: Graduation from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree. Experience: Three (3) years of experience in conducting civil or criminal investigations related to compliance, enforcement, detection and surveillance activity, including the preparation of investigative reports; or Three (3) years of experience in conducting investigative administrative audits and/or regulatory examinations of records maintained by businesses and organizations; or Three (3) years of experience in conducting investigations for the government, the military, consumer protection programs, public advocacy organizations or the public interest. Substitution: Applicants who do not possess the required education may substitute experience as indicated on a year-for-year basis. Completion of a supervised internship field placement of 300 hours in an undergraduate curriculum in Criminal Justice or a related degree program may be substituted for one (1) year of the experience. A Juris Doctorate degree or a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice, Public Administration, Business Administration, Law or other related field may be substituted for one (1) year of the indicated experience. Note: Preference will be given to those with experience in homeland security, intelligence, investigations and threat intake/analysis. License: Appointee will be required to possess a driver's license valid in New Jersey only if the operation of a vehicle, rather than employee mobility, is necessary to perform essential duties of the position. Resume Note: Eligibility determinations will be based upon information presented in resume only. Applicants who possess foreign degrees (degrees earned outside of the U.S.) are required to provide an evaluation indicating the U.S. equivalency. NJ SAME Program Applicants: If you are applying under the NJ SAME Program, your supporting documents must be submitted along with your resume by the closing date of the posting. Interested applicants should submit a Letter of Interest, Resume, and State of NJ Application for Employment.
