DESCRIPTION

STUDENTS ANTICIPATING GRADUATION IN MAY 2025 ARE ENCOURAGED TO APPLY

The New Jersey Department of Transportation (NJDOT) is seeking candidates for the position of Analyst Trainee within the Division of Capital Program Management, Program Management Office (PMO). Analyst Trainees are assigned a 40 - hour work week. Current starting salary is $54,351.06 and after six months is $56,828.70.

The Department of Transportation (DOT) currently offers a telework pilot program, and this position may qualify for up to 2 days of remote work at your primary residence outside of your assigned DOT work location. This program does not supersede the "New Jersey First Act", which requires newly hired NJDOT employees to establish, and then maintain, principal residence in the State of New Jersey.

New hires will not be eligible for the telework pilot program until they successfully complete their 4 - month working test period.

The Program Management Office (PMO) provides support to the project management teams within the Division of Project Management who deliver all assigned capital projects. These projects are delivered on schedule, within budget, and are of a high quality from concept development through the completion of construction. Support by the PMO is provided through conducting project cost estimations, budget change management, schedule management expertise, process development, federal and other interagency coordination, and project management principles and information system - based training.

The Program Management Office (PMO) is comprised of two units, each one having their own separate functions, but working with each other at times for the benefit of the Division of Project Management (DPM), Capital Program Management (CPM), and the NJDOT at large. The Units are the Center for Improvement (CFI) and Budget, Estimation, and Schedule. This position will be in the Budget, Estimation, and Schedule unit.

Under the direction of the unit supervisor, the trainee will include (but not limited to):

- Learning to gather information regarding project estimation and project budgeting.
- Supporting work groups in reviewing estimates for projects.
- Learning how to prepare various standard and ad hoc reports for business units.
- Understanding other data gathering and reporting tools of the department.
- Learning how to analyze statistical data and trends over time.
- Maintaining records and files on multiple platforms.
- Learning policies and procedures necessary to assist with delivering support to the Capital Program.
- Learning how to review regulatory information in relation to project budgeting, estimation, and schedule.
- Learning various functions related to schedule management and Primavera

REQUIREMENTS
